1. The lyrics to “Pop! Goes the Weasel” are out of order. Can you cut them out and glue them on a new sheet in the correct order?

The monkey chased the weasel

Pop! Goes the weasel

All around the mulberry bush

The monkey thought 'twas all in fun

2. Look at the way the notes move in this excerpt from “Ode to Joy”. Can you label each section using A and B? Remember if the same section comes back, you should label it with the same letter, if it’s almost the same you can call it the same letter, but put a number 1 beside it! (A1) If it’s different, use the next letter in the alphabet!

The image shows four staves of musical notation for the first line of 'Ode to Joy' in G major, 4/4 time. Each staff begins with an empty square box for labeling. The notes on the staves are: Staff 1: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F4, E4, D4, C4, B3, A3, G3. Staff 2: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F4, E4, D4, C4, B3, A3, G3. Staff 3: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F4, E4, D4, C4, B3, A3, G3. Staff 4: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F4, E4, D4, C4, B3, A3, G3.
